The Pittsburgh Concert Chorale Presents “Sounds of the Season”
Warm Up from Chilly Winter Weather with Cheerful Holiday Songs

PITTSBURGH (Nov. 11, 2016) –The Pittsburgh Concert Chorale proudly presents “Sounds of the Season.” a concert filled with holiday favorites, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 2, and 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 4, at Ingomar United Methodist Church; and 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 3, at Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church.

PCC’s celebrated winter concert, which launches the holiday season for many audience members, includes a wide variety of music, ranging from traditional to current delights. This year, audiences will enjoy music ranging from “Ave Maria” and “Still, Still, Still” to “We Need A Little Christmas” and “Jingle Bell Rock.” There will be plenty of carols too, and concert goers will get to sing along with the PCC for some of those.

“The holiday concerts are always so much fun, both for us and for our audience,” Music Director Susan Medley said. “No matter what your age or how you celebrate, the ‘Sounds of the Season’ presents music that will put you in a festive mood. If you haven’t experienced it already, we urge you to come start a new tradition with your loved ones!”

Individual concert tickets may be purchased in advance or at the door. Prices are: Adults - $20 ($23 at the door); students - $8; no cost for children under 12. People also may order tickets for this and other PCC concerts – including group sales and season subscriptions – online at www.PCCSing.org or by calling 412.635.7654. The “Sounds of the Season” concerts are part of the 2016-2017 Season.
